

BT Premium Cash Fund

Updating the information in the Product Disclosure Statement

This Update, dated 12 March 2014, relates to the BT Premium Cash Fund (ARSN 089 299 730) Additional Information Booklet dated 1 July 2013. This Update is issued by BT Funds Management Limited ABN 63 002 916 458 AFSL 233724, and should be read together with the Product Disclosure Statement (PDS).

Privacy laws regulate the handling of personal information about individuals. This includes the collection, use, storage and disclosure of personal information. In light of changes to Australian privacy laws, we're updating the information we provide to you about how we manage your information.

The following Privacy Statement outlines how we collect, use, disclose and manage your personal information. It replaces the information under 'Protecting your Privacy' in the Additional Information Booklet, and reflects changes to the Privacy Act effective from 12 March 2014. 'We', 'our', 'us' and any other defined terms have the same meaning as contained in the Additional Information Booklet.

Privacy Statement

Why we collect your personal information

We collect personal information from you so that we can provide you with a product or service, and manage your product or service. We may also use your information to comply with legislative or regulatory requirements in any jurisdiction, prevent fraud, crime or other activity that may cause harm in relation to our products or services and help us to run our business. We may also use your information to tell you about products or services we think may interest you.

If you do not provide all the information we request, we may no longer be able to provide a product or service to you.

How we collect your personal information

We may collect your information from many places including your application form, correspondence with you or your Financial Planner, our telephone calls with you, or you using our website at bt.com.au or emailing us.

We may also collect your information from other members of the Westpac Group or from a service provider engaged to do something for us or another member of the Westpac Group. Our service providers typically include custodians, investment administrators, information technology advisers, mailhouses, auditors, legal advisers and consultants.

Disclosing your personal information

We may disclose your personal information to other members of the Westpac Group, anyone we engage to do something on our behalf such as a service provider, other organisations that assist us with our business and any person who acts on your behalf in relation to the financial products and financial services acquired by you (such as your adviser).

We may disclose your personal information to an entity which is located outside Australia. Details of the countries where the overseas recipients are likely to be located are in the BT Privacy Policy.

As a provider of financial services, we have obligations to disclose some personal information to government agencies and regulators in Australia, and in some cases offshore. We are not able to ensure that foreign government agencies or regulators will comply with Australian privacy laws, although they may have their own privacy laws. By using our products and services, you consent to these disclosures.

Other important information

We are required or authorised to collect personal information from you by certain laws. Details of these laws are in the BT Privacy Policy.

The BT Privacy Policy is available at bt.com.au or by calling 132 135. It covers:

- ▶ how you can access the personal information we hold about you and ask for it to be corrected;
- ▶ how you may complain about a breach of the Australian Privacy Principles, or a registered privacy code and how we will deal with your complaint; and
- ▶ how we collect, hold, use and disclose your personal information in more detail.

The BT Privacy Policy will be updated from time to time.

Where you have provided information about another individual (e.g. your authorised representative) you must make them aware of that fact and the contents of this Privacy Statement.

“Westpac Group” means Westpac Banking Corporation and its related bodies corporate.

We and members of the Westpac Group will use or disclose your personal information to contact you or send you information about other products and services offered by the Westpac Group or its preferred suppliers. If you do not wish to receive marketing communications from us please call us on 132 135.
