Understanding the insurance changes to your BT Lifetime Super Employer Plan

Effective 1 July 2015

In conjunction with the Fund's insurer, AIA Australia Limited (AIA), we are making changes to the insurance premium rates and insurance terms and conditions in the BT Lifetime Super – Employer Plan (the Fund) which will be effective from 1 July 2015.

The following tables explain these changes and how they will apply to you. Please refer to your cover letter for guidance on the classification of your insurance cover type as either 'Standard cover' or 'Tailored cover'.

An updated Product Disclosure Statement (PDS), including the new insurance premium rate tables and changed terms and conditions, will be available at <a href="https://doi.org/10.2015/bit.2015/

Details of the insurance changes are provided in this flyer on the following pages:

What is changing for 'Standard cover'?	What is changing for 'Tailored cover'?	How this change applies to you
2) Introduction of tapering rules to inc insurance cover	2) Introduction of tapering rules to incrementally reduce Death and Total and Permanent Disablement (TPD) insurance cover
Tapering is the incremental reduction of [Death and/or TPD Insurance cover amoun	ts from a selected age e.g. age 60 or 70.
The new tapering rules will not apply because the Fund 'Standard cover' benefit design already reduces over time with a member's age.	We are introducing tapering rules for the Fund's 'Tailored cover' benefit designs that do not automatically reduce with age. If at any time from 1 July 2015 you decide to 'fix' your insurance cover amount, tapering will apply to that fixed level of cover. The reduction of the amount of cover, from age 60 for TPD cover or age 70 for Death cover by tapering, is designed to assist members, given premiums increase (often dramatically) from age 55 and may potentially erode a superannuation account balance. Tapering helps minimise this issue. The need for insurance cover also generally reduces as you reach your late 50s, as the requirement to support debt and dependants generally reduces, and you become focused on maximising your retirement benefits.	No action is required by you. Please refer to your current insurance details table on your cover letter, which indicates if tapering is applicable to you (Important note). The tapering of TPD cover will be introduced for all members with 'Tailored cover' with the exception of existing members aged 60 or over at 1 July 2015. When tapering commences, the effect will be a reduction of your TPD cover amount by 15% of the initial pretapering value. This reduction will continue to occur each year, from age 60 until age 64, as part of the annual review of insurance (1 July). When you reach age 64, the TPD cover amount will be fixed at 25% of the initial pretapering value until your insurance cover ceases at age 70. The tapering of Death cover will be introduced for all members with 'Tailored cover' with the exception of existing members aged 70 or over at 1 July 2015. When tapering commences, the effect will be a reduction of your Death cover value by 15% of the initial pre-tapering value each year from age 70 to age 74. Death cover will cease at age 75. At any time, you can reduce, cancel or apply to increase your current insurance cover. To do so, please complete the relevant form available at bt.com.au/super/products/lifetime-super-employer-plan, contact your Financial Adviser or call us on 132 135 (Monday to Friday 8am – 6:30pm Sydney time).

To assist you to understand tapering and the impact to insurance cover, please refer to the following example:

A male office worker, earning $25,000 p.a. with a 'multiple of salary' benefit design (e.g. 4 x salary) is entitled to a Death and TPD benefit of $100,000 prior to age 60. Tapering will incrementally reduce the amount of the member's Death and TPD cover as displayed in the table below.

Please note the same example applies to a member with a fixed amount of Death and TPD cover of $100,000.

Age ¹	Death – Cover amount	Death – Tapering amount ²	TPD – Cover amount	TPD - Tapering amount ²

4) When you leave your Employer - 'Corporate to Personal' transfer terms and conditions

We are changing some of the Fund's terms and conditions applicable when you cease employment with your Employer and your super and insurance will be transferred to the Personal Division of the Fund.

These changes are intended to clarify existing policy terms for our members.

Upon leaving your Employer, subject to meeting existing terms and the eligibility conditions set out in the Policy Schedule, you will become Personal members of the Fund. This will occur on the date we are first notified that you have ceased employment with your Employer.

If you submit a claim for insurance benefits, this means you will be assessed based on your occupation at the date of the claimable event e.g. injury or illness diagnosis. This is regardless of the TPD definition or Total Disability definition you were entitled to receive when employed by your previous Employer, and irrespective of whether or not we have been notified that you ceased employment.

If at the time of claim you are working in an occupation classified as 'Special Risk', 'Activities of Daily Living' (ADL), 'Individual Consideration' or 'Not Applicable', as outlined in the BT Occupation Guide (available at <a href="https://docs.org/bt-com/bt-c

No action is required by you.

If you submit a claim you will be assessed based on your occupation at the time of claim.

For example, if you previously worked in the role of an office worker, you left your Employer and you are now an underground miner, you will be assessed, at claim time as an underground miner and the 'ADL' definition of TPD and Total Disability would apply.

In a contrary example, if you previously worked as an underground miner, you left your Employer and you are now an office worker, you will be assessed, at claim time as an office worker and the standard 'Education, Training or Experience' (ETE) definition may apply for TPD and standard Total Disability definition may apply for SCI.

Please refer to the full 'Total Disability for SCI definition on pages 16-17 and the full TPD definitions provided in point 7 below.

If you have ceased employment, you do not need to wait for your previous Employer to notify us, you can contact us on 132 135 and we can guide you in how to notify us correctly.

5) A new 'Special Risk' occupation category will be introduced to Standard and Tailored cover

Premiums for insurance cover are often related to your occupation. If you work in an office, your premiums are typically less than if you have manual duties as part of your role.

The introduction of a 'Special Risk' occupation category will allow BT to better meet the needs of our members, by providing insurance cover to more of our members. It will also ensure that those members working in each occupation category, including Special Risk, are receiving the appropriate pricing and terms and conditions for their occupation class.

'Special Risk' occupations typically consist of employees in occupations which present special difficulties in assessing the Insurer's risk, are hazardous in nature, are sometimes unskilled occupations and generally unqualified (although some have minimum experience level (3 years). Those listed are often exposed to high-risk accidents or health hazards, and includes:

- a) specialist occupations including, for example, models, actors, pilots;
- b) occupations with additional hazards including, for example, miners, seafarers and professional sportspeople; and
- highly repetitive occupations including, for example, process workers and long haul drivers.

The new 'Special Risk' occupational loading factors are displayed below. Where the PDS displays the White Collar premiums payable, if your occupation is not white collar, the premiums will be increased by these occupational loading factors. The loadings for White Collar, Light Blue, Blue Collar and Heavy Blue occupations have not changed and are provided below for illustration purposes only.

Occupation class	Death Only	Death & TPD	SCI
White Collar	1.00	1.00	1.00
Light Blue Collar	1.25	1.375	1.35
Blue Collar	1.50	1.75	1.75
Heavy Blue Collar	2.00	2.50	2.50
Special Risk Collar	3.75	4.75	5.00

For example if a White Collar premium is $0.37 per $10,000 of cover, a Light Blue Collar occupation will be $0.37 x 1.375 per $10,000 of cover for Death and TPD.

No action is required by you.

If after 1 July 2015 you or your Employer notifies BT of a change in your occupation which prompts a change in your occupation category (for example you move from a Heavy Blue Collar occupation to a 'Special Risk' occupation), the new occupational loading factors will apply.

Important notes:

- If you joined an employer plan that automatically provides TPD cover with a plan start date prior to 1 July 2007 and you work in a 'Special Risk' occupation, you will typically receive TPD cover with the Education, Training or Experience (ETE) definition whilst you remain employed with that Employer.
- If you joined an employer plan with a plan start date on or after 1 July 2007 and you work in a 'Special Risk' occupation, you will typically receive TPD cover with the Activities of Daily Living (ADL) definition.

Examples of how to estimate your monthly insurance premium(s)

To estimate the monthly cost of your Death Only and Death and TPD insurance cover, first find your occupational group as shown in the previous table, then the occupational factor loading applicable to your occupational classification and the premium rate based on your gender and age at your next birthday, as shown in the following tables¹.

Important note: If you were a member of BT Super prior to 1 November 2013, commissions may be payable to your Financial Adviser, subject to existing arrangements in place with your employer. This may impact the rates disclosed in this section and the cost of your insurance cover. Please call BT Customer Relations for rates applicable to you.

Then for tailored cover perform the following calculation.

Monthly premium = [sum insured \div $10,000] × [occupational factor loading x monthly premium rate from table]

For example:

	nday), with a Death Only benefit of $200,000	The premiums required to provide a female nurse, aged 39 (40 next birthday), with a Death Only benefit of $300,000 would be calculated as follows.
Monthly premium	= [\$200,000 ÷ \$10,000] × [1.00 (white collar factor loading)× \$0.48] = \$20 × \$0.48 = \$9.60 per month = approximately \$0.32 per day	Monthly premium =[$$300,000 \div $10,000] \times [1.50 \text{ (blue of factor loading)} \times $0.49]$ = $$30 \times 0.74 = $$22.05 \text{ per month}$ = approximately \$0.74 per day
		The premiums required to provide the same person with Death and TPD benefit of $300,000 would be calculated follows.
Monthly premium	=[$200,000 ÷ $10,000] × [1.00 × $0.75] = $20 × $0.75 = $15.00 per month = approximately $0.50 per day	Monthly premium	= [$300,000 ÷ $10,000] × [1.75 × $1.01] = $30 × $1.77 = $53.03 per month = approximately $1.77 per day

Male white collar worker aged 39 (40 next birthday) with two units of standard cover.

Sum insured = $$300,000 \times 2 = $600,000$ of Death and TPD cover Weekly premium = $$5.10 \times 2 = \10.20

Monthly premium = $$10.20 \times 52 \div 12 = 44.20 (or $1.47 per day).

Female blue collar worker aged 26 (27 next birthday) with one unit of standard cover.

Sum insured = Death $70,000, TPD $300,000

Monthly premium = $$1.40 \times 52 \div 12 = 6.07 (or $0.20 per day).

¹_ The actual premiums charged may differ due to employer related variations. Premiums and sums insured may also vary due to rounding. You will receive confirmation of the actual premium to be charged once an application has been accepted.

Example

The monthly cost of SCI cover (for a two-year benefit period with a 90-day waiting period) available to a male electrician, aged 34 (35 next birthday), earning $50,000 per year, based on a 75% of salary formula, is calculated as follows.

Monthly Benefit = $[$50,000 \times 75\%] \div 12 = $3,125$

Monthly Premium = $[$3,125 \div 100] \times [0.15 \times 1.75$ (blue collar factor loading)] = $8.20 per month

Occupational factors - multiply the rates above by the applicable loading below

	SCI
White Collar	1.00
Light Blue Collar	1.35
Blue Collar	1.75
Heavy Blue Collar	2.50
Special Risk Collar	5.00

Female Salary Continuance Insurance (SCI) premium rates

Monthly Benefit= [Annual Salary × up to 75%] ÷ 121

Monthly Premium = $[monthly benefit \div 100] \times [monthly premium rate from table below \times occupational factor loading]$

Example

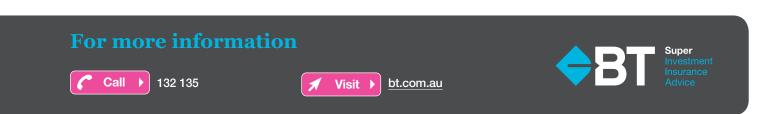

The monthly cost of SCI cover (for a two-year benefit period with a 90-day waiting period) available to a female office worker, aged 39 (40 next birthday), earning $60,000 per year, based on a 75% of salary formula, is calculated as follows.

Monthly Benefit = $[$60,000 \times 75\%] \div 12 = $3,750$ Monthly Premium = $[$3,750 \div 100] \times [0.30 \times 1.00$ (white collar factor loading)] = $11.25per month

	SCI
White Collar	1.00
Light Blue Collar	1.35
Blue Collar	1.75
Heavy Blue Collar	2.50
Special Risk Collar	5.00
