

BT Classic Investment Funds

End to ongoing advice fee arrangements

Product Update: 1 December 2020

Product Update

This Update, dated 1 December 2020, updates information contained in the BT Classic Investment Funds Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) dated 1 July 2014 and the Supplementary PDS (SPDS) dated 30 September 2017 and 22 March 2018 available at bt.com.au. This Update is issued by BT Funds Management Limited ABN 63 002 916 458, AFSL 233724 and BT Funds Management No. 2 Limited ABN 22 000 727 659, AFSL 233720.

The information in the PDS is updated for the changes set out below.

End to ongoing advice fee arrangements

Effective 1 December 2020, the ability to direct the Responsible Entity to pay an ongoing advice fee (referred to on pages 23 – 24 of the PDS) by redeeming units in your investment in the BT Classic Investment Funds will no longer be available.

Accordingly, any references and statements relating to the ongoing advice fee within the BT Classic Investment Funds PDS are taken to be removed from 1 December 2020 onwards.

If you are an existing investor who had an ongoing advice fee arrangement in place prior to 1 December 2020, the ongoing advice fee will cease to be paid to your adviser out of your investment in the BT Classic Investment Funds after 30 November 2020.

One-off advice fees will still be available from 1 December 2020 with no change. After 30 November 2020, you can still arrange with your adviser for one-off advice fees to be paid to your adviser from your investment in the BT Classic Investment Funds, provided you give your consent by completing the applicable advice fee form. Please speak to your adviser to discuss this option.
