

CoreSeries Income Portfolio

Portfolio Profile

This information has been prepared for use by Advisers only

CoreSeries offers six portfolios intended to meet the needs of a range of investors with medium to high risk profiles. Each portfolio is actively managed and diversified, and may invest in asset classes such as equities, property, infrastructure, cash and fixed interest.

What type of investor could this portfolio suit?

CoreSeries Income Portfolio could be suitable for an investor with a minimum four year investment horizon with a medium to high capacity and tolerance for risk. This portfolio aims to produce a relatively stable income stream from both bonds and equities, thus it is intended the income return may make up a higher proportion of the total return.

Footnotes

- 1 Past performance is not a reliable indicator of future performance. Any projections mentioned on this publication are predictive in character. Whilst we have used every effort to ensure that the assumptions on which the projections are based are reasonable, the projections may be affected by inaccurate assumptions or may not take into account known or unknown risks and uncertainties. The actual risk and return outcomes can materially differ from these projections.
- 2 Please refer to the section 'What are the risks?' in the BT Managed Portfolios PDS, including the risk that performance objectives may not be achieved.
- 3 CPI Inflation: The Australian 'Consumer price index – All group' measured on non-seasonally adjusted basis, which is the total or 'headline' consumer price index. Percentage changes are calculated from the indices published in ABS Cat No 6401.0.
- 4 A significant percentage of assets comprising this portfolio are only available through the CoreSeries Portfolios and therefore can't be transferred out of BT Managed Portfolios. For more information relating to restrictions that may apply to asset transfers, refer to the 'How BT Managed Portfolios works' section in Part 1 of the BT Managed Portfolios PDS.
- 5 Refer to the BT Managed Portfolio PDS for details of the standard risk measure (SRM) assigned to the portfolio. The SRM is based on industry guidance, and allows retail investors to compare managed portfolio options that are expected to deliver a similar number of negative annual returns over any 20 year period.
- 6 The relevant fees and costs relating to the underlying investments are net of any rebate paid by an issuer of an underlying managed fund that forms part of the portfolio and is passed on to the retail investor. For an explanation of these fees and costs, refer to the BT Managed Portfolio PDS. Fees and costs may change from time to time.
- 7 This fee is payable monthly to the responsible entity of BT Managed Portfolios, and is calculated on the average daily value of the portfolio for the month.
- 8 The amount of indirect costs is an estimate for the relevant underlying investments in relation to the financial year ending 30 June 2023 (inclusive of any GST and are net of any reduced input tax credit). For more information, refer to the 'Additional explanation of fees and costs' section of the BT Managed Portfolios PDS.
- 9 For an explanation of these fees and costs, refer to 'What are the fees and other costs?' section in the BT Managed Portfolios PDS.
- 10 BT Managed Portfolios is available through BT Panorama Investment or BT Panorama Super (being the BT Panorama products).
- 11 Managers of the Underlying Funds may invest in cash or cash equivalents for administrative purposes (including meeting applications and redemptions for the Underlying Fund). This is not reflected in the above allocation to Cash.
- 12 The portfolio gains indirect exposure to the Asset Classes by investing in the Underlying Funds (except as otherwise noted in footnote 11 in relation to Cash).
- 13 The 'Cash' asset class also includes the cash allocation of the portfolio that is held in BT Cash Management Account, a cash account issued by Westpac Banking Corporation, (or any other cash product nominated by us) and may include allocation to other cash type investments.
